ORDER

July 12, 2021

Saris, D.J.

On June 3, 2021, pro se litigant Tony Wilson filed a thirteen-page handwritten document which appears to have the titles "Main Topic/Concern" and "In Reference Complaint." The Clerk assigned the matter a docket number and, for processing purposes, listed the State of New York as the defendant.

It is unclear what Wilson is trying to accomplish with his document. Although neatly written, the contents of the document are very difficult to understand. Wilson expresses his opinion of the criminal justice system of New York, his own interactions with said system, and challenges his is facing with homelessness and a financial institution.

Here, Wilson's "complaint" is subject to dismissal. His allegations do not have any apparent connection to the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. Thus, venue is not found in the District of Massachusetts. See 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b).

Further, the document fails to set forth a "short and plain statement of the claim showing that the [plaintiff] is entitled to relief." Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(a)(2). Wilson has neither identified a defendant nor set forth clear factual allegations showing that he is entitled to relief from any such defendant.

Accordingly, this action is DISMISSED without prejudice for lack of proper venue and Wilson's failure to set forth a short and plain statement of his claim showing that he is entitled to relief.

SO ORDERED.
